

INTERMODAL CONNECTIONS

TESTIMONIALS

"Intermodal Connections is a partner that understands the logistics world. They're an extension of our business, and they know that whatever the changes, whatever the requirements, they've got to get our product out the door and on board the vessels on time. Due to the diversity of our business we require "just in time" deliveries to our customers and Intermodal Connections has and continues to meet these expectations.

As an exporter in a very competitive market, we need every part of our supply chain to be efficient and cost effective. Intermodal Connections work's very closely with us from planned receipts to final delivery to our customers. One of the keys to achieving superior service is the ability to adjust quickly to our customer's delivery and compliance requirements. They've consistently demonstrated their ability to adapt to these changes regardless of the challenge. Their value-added service together with their exemplary service provides additional supply chain support.

Their staffs are extremely competent and adjust well to our daily requirements and individual needs to deliver a service that our clients have become accustomed to. "

"I can confidently recommend Intermodal Connections as a solid and reliable supplier, with an extremely high level of commitment to excellent customer service and are without doubt experts in their field.

We have thoroughly enjoyed our relationship and very close friendship with Jo-Ann Mellon and working with a professional and courteous team makes our job easier when planning and executing our shipments. Intermodal Connections have exceeded our expectations by providing value added services.

It is our pleasure to recommend the services of Intermodal Connections who offers the best quality service and act as a true partner, together with very high ethics and integrity, always looking for the best solution to each problem."

"Once instructions are sent to Intermodal Connections operations department, I feel confident knowing that our shipments are in good hands and there is never a need for us to follow up and check on the progress. Intermodal Connections are a vital part of our business and I would recommend their services to any prospective customers."
